

Nathalie Gaubert-Calabro is a well renowned and highly experienced Ballet teacher, former professional ballet dancer with international experience. She has been conducting Ballet classes for almost 25 years and is currently an international guest Ballet teacher at workshops and master classes, jury for competitions throughout Italy, France and The Netherlands -Rotterdam, DD3, Utrecht, Maastricht universities and even in Singapore.

Formerly trained by Marika Bresobrasova in MonteCarlo, she danced and studied in several other French cities- Toulouse, Bordeaux, Marseille and Paris to name but a few and also choreographed for TV, theater shows and Festival (Imagine 96). during her extensive career. She was the creator and Artistic director of two Academies of Dance in Aix en provence for 12 years.

She has been teaching Russian/Classical method, French method, Pas de deux, Terminology, Repertoire and Floor Barre. She has coached and taught dancers (both students and professionals) from Europe and Asia.

Having taught and served on their Board for many years at the prestigious CODARTS, University of Arts and Royal Dance Academy of Rotterdam, The Netherlands, she returned to France in 2013 as Ballet teacher and coordinator at "Azur Dance Academy" in Bordeaux where she headed the pre-professional and post-graduate education program, regularly invited as a reviewer for exams and auditions in Europe.

Furthermore, lecturer at CODARTS, she has been the project manager of the exclusive French audition "CODARTS.France" and early 2014 has been appointed "delegate of Codarts and "Young talent scout for CODARTS .

Her students have been accepted to the world's top professional ballet academies and companies.

Her teaching emphasis is on placement, correct alignment, musicality, turnout and re-education of the body. From the feedback of her students she has the ability to facilitate accurate muscular use of the body inducing artistic feelings.